SUNDAY MASSES 9 AM & 11 am

WEEKDAY MASSES – 7:30 am (check bulletin)

"My eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." (Luke 2:30-32)

INTRODUCTION

Simeon and Anna see parents consecrate their firstborns to God every day. Simeon's words in the temple tell us who this child is and who He is meant for. And their words amaze Mary and Joseph. The gift of Jesus, is welcomed and acknowledged in this Gospel reading as "consolation," "salvation," "light," and "glory." Simeon's proclamation of praise is the treasure to this day in "The Canticle of Simeon". This child, born in humble surroundings to an unknown peasant family, belongs not only to His mother and foster father, to His relatives, or even to His fellow countrymen. This child is light and glory for the whole world.

Today's Scriptures Reading

Malachi 3:1-4 The Lord whom you seek will come to his Temple

Psalms 24:7, 8, 9, 10 - Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!

Hebrews 2: 14-18

Luke 2: 32 - A light of revelation to the Gentiles

St. Blaise Blessing of the Throats Holy Mass on February 2 will conclude with St. Blaise Blessing of the Throat. St. Blaise's Story — In 1222, the Council of Oxford prohibited servile labor in England on Blaise's feast day. The Germans and Slavs hold him in special honor, and for decades many United States Catholics have sought the annual St. Blaise blessing for their throats. We know that Bishop Blaise was martyred in his episcopal city of Sebastea, Armenia, in 316. The legendary "Acts of St. Blaise" were written 400 years later. According to them, Blaise was a good bishop, working hard to encourage the spiritual and physical health of his people. During persecution in Armenia, Blaise was forced to flee to live as a hermit in solitude and prayer. He made friends with the wild animals. One day a group of hunters seeking wild animals stumbled upon Blaise's cave. They were surprised and frightened. The bishop was kneeling in prayer surrounded by patiently waiting wolves, lions and bears. The legend has it that as the hunters hauled Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command the child was able to cough up the bone. Agricolaus, governor of Cappadocia, tried to persuade Blaise to worship pagan idols. Blaise refused; he was martyred. Saint Blaise is the Patron Saint of throat ailments.
